

Hidden Meadow Ranch - Greer Arizona

Celebrate the seasons at this luxury guest ranch surrounded by majestic national forest in eastern Arizona's White Mountains. Near the charming and historic town of Greer in Apache County, Hidden Meadow Ranch is an escape from urban life – a luxurious retreat for relaxing in a hammock under the whispering pine trees or enjoying the best activities nature has to offer.

At 8500 feet, the landscape includes tall Ponderosa Pines, whispering Aspens, and lush mountain meadows that make it a magnificent home to the more than abundant wildlife including elk, deer, wild turkey, antelope, and bald eagles. Enjoy all that our four seasons have to offer...Cool Mountain summers, Brisk Spring days, Colorful Fall leaves, and Snowy Winters. Whatever the reason.... Whatever the season. Hidden Meadow Ranch has so much to offer!

While at Hidden Meadow Ranch you will enjoy all of the serenity of a wilderness setting with gourmet dining in our casually elegant dining room. Your stay includes three meals per day ranging from fresh squeezed orange juice at breakfast to lunch on the trail packed in your saddlebag to a candlelit mountain cuisine dinner in our beautiful Ranch House Restaurant.

Surrounded by thousands of acres of natural open space, the Lodge is the perfect year-round place from which to launch a myriad of activities – or for just hiding away and relaxing in a hammock. Horses are at the heart of Hidden Meadow Ranch and more than 975 miles of trails wind through the Apache-Sitgreaves National Forest so you'll enjoy quiet, peaceful trail rides every day. You may also enjoy, fly-fishing in our spring-fed trout pond, archery, horse-drawn wagon rides, hiking, mountain biking and much more.

After a fun filled day, settle into one of our 12 luxuriously furnished log guest cabins where you will enjoy pillow-topped mattresses, locally hand-carved wood furniture, fine art and antiques, custom cowboy soaking tub, and a crackling fire.
